KENNARD-DALE HIGH SCHOOL
Fawn Grove, Pennsylvania
1966-1967

Foreword

Life itself is action and school life is no exception. By cheering at basketball games, preparing for exams, or even running to lunch, every student and teacher at Kennard-Dale helps in some way to affirm this observation. Keeping this idea in mind, we, the FAWN staff of 1967, proudly present our theme, Action, in hopes that it may accurately depict our school life through the years.

We, the FAWN Staff of 1967, wish to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to a man who has contributed much to the making of our yearbook.

He had been advisor to the yearbook staff for eight years and he has also given generously of his time and effort as a history, science, and geography teacher here at Kennard-Dale.

ADMINISTRATION

School Board. Row One: F. Boyle, Solicitor; C. Shaw, Vice-President; R. McGinnis, President; M. Pomraning, Secretary; C. Manifold, Treasurer. Row Two: M. Krechmer, H. Dooley, W. Crowl, R. Halsted, T. Scott, C. Lutton, R. Morris.

Dear Members of the Class of 1967:

From your first soft and fearful step as a seventh grader entering Kennard-Dale to the measured but confident walk across the commencement stage, class history has been made. The yearbook editors and staff, whom you commissioned, have prepared this fine edition of the "Fawn" to record the memorable events of these school years.

The 1967 "Fawn", however, is only the introductory chapter to a continuing history of which you will be a part. The remaining chapters are yours to live and write.

May they narrate an exciting, happy, and bountiful life for each of you in a rapidly changing world.

Yours truly,

Eldon S. Webb

Eldon S. Webb
Supervising Principal

Dear Seniors:

I am pleased to extend congratulations to you, the members of the Class of 1967, for having earned your high school diploma. The many hours of hard work spent in earning your diploma from Kennard-Dale High School will be a pleasant memory in the span of a very few years.

Now it is time for each of you to determine a course of action as to how your knowledge gained the past six years may be applied to life. Opportunities for the Class of 1967 appear to be unlimited; the use of these opportunities depends upon the action taken by you, the individual members of the Class of 1967. I trust that your past six years at Kennard-Dale will prove to be an asset in all your future endeavors.

Set your sights on your own private star and never cease trying to obtain your goal.

James F. Howell

Dear Seniors:

It has been a pleasure to work with the Class of 1967. During the past six years, I am confident you have acquired the knowledge and experience to meet the opportunities and challenges of the future.

Congratulations on your graduation. I sincerely hope you experience a happy and successful future.

Sincerely,

Class History

The Class of 1967 shall not depart from Kennard-Dale unremembered. Although we may be small in numbers, we have left a great impression. Our most worthy accomplishment has been the achievement of working together harmoniously.

September of 1961 was the beginning of our six favorable years. Unity was not acquired at this early date, but acceptance of only the best soon became our goal.

We first displayed our ambitions when we sponsored our very successful eighth grade dance, "April Showers." Clothed in our best behavior, we embarked on our first class trip, a tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield.

As ninth graders our choosing of definite courses of study did not serve as a means of separation. In the fall of 1962 Kennard-Dale's county co-champion junior high football team was captained by and primarily composed of members of the Class of 1967. The Philadelphia Zoo was the scene of our second class trip.

We take pride in the fact that it was our class which innovated the idea of having an instrumental group at the tenth grade dance. "Harvest Ball" was the chosen name for our pace-setting dance. During this year we found the General Motors Plant and Hagley Museum to be sights of interest.

Our visit to the Nation's Capitol on November sixteenth of our junior year was certainly worth raving about. It was our good fortune to twice encounter Princess Margaret and the Earl of Snowden. Upon achieving our peak of unity we successfully presented our first play, the classic, Pride and Prejudice. Slipping into the magical world of fantasy, we looked with the seniors "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" at our junior prom.

Although our senior production of The Curious Savage induced many laughs, it offered a deep message for everyone. The romanticism of "Mistletoe and Holly" entranced all who attended our Christmas dance.

In striving for the best we have left our mark, a good one, indeed. It is our wish that the succeeding classes may accomplish the same, and in so doing, receive as much enjoyment and satisfaction as we have had and will go on remembering.

Somewhere Over The Rainbow

The storybook land of Oz suggested an atmosphere of fantasy for the 1966 Junior-Senior Prom, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." As the guests entered, they walked over the rainbow and down the Yellow Brick Road to Emerald City. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen before the gates of the enchanted city.

Sharon Cox and John McGreevy following the Yellow Brick Road.

Russell Smith helping Nancy Stewart to Emerald City.

A few of the guests enjoying a new innovation, a punch fountain.

Homecoming Queen. Linda McPherson.

Homecoming Court. Cindy Emery, Darlene Richardson, Helen Strawbridge, Nina Lewis.

Homecoming '67

The court, their escorts, and the crown bearer, Lisa Allen, minutes before the crowning.

Royalty mixed with a fierce battle between the Kennard-Dale Rams and the St. Francis Hilltoppers made Homecoming '67 a memorable occasion. The day's festivities were climaxed by the crowning of the queen at the dance that evening. She was chosen from a group of five candidates each representing a school organization.

Kenton Kurtz, King; Diane Eaton, Queen.

Christmas brings to mind Santa Claus, Christmas trees, mistletoe, and holly, and the Senior Class combined all of these into the annual Christmas Dance. The theme, Mistletoe and Holly, was displayed by a large mistletoe and holly ball suspended in the center, a Christmas tree forest where the King and Queen were crowned, and of course a visit from Santa Claus.

The Gazette & Daily

Junior Play Cast. Seated: Linda McPherson, Elizabeth Bennet; Carolyn Wagner, Mrs. Bennet; Philip Hammond, Mr. Bennet; Marcia Trapnell, Jane Bennet. Standing: Jim Emery, Mr. Darcy; Jean Kelly, Lydia Bennet; Chris Trout, Mr. Wickham; Lois Ann Theophel, Lady Catherine de Bourgh; Gene Runkle, Mr. Collins; Jerry McCleary, Mr. Bingley. Other Characters: David Schott, Hill; Darlene Richardson, Lady Lucas; Jane Ruff, Charlotte Lucas; Valerie Dixon, Amelia; Rita Gibson, Belinda; Pat Yale, Amanda; Joe Fishel and Reed Wilson, Young Men; Jim Metz, Captain Denny; Kathy Orr, Miss Bingley; Debbie Tredway, Agatha; Joy Sexton, Maid; Betty Grafton, Maggie; Eileen Howell, Mrs. Gardiner; David Folcomer, Colonel Guy Fitzwilliam; Margie Torbert, Mrs. Lake.

Pride and Prejudice

Pride and Prejudice, a sentimental comedy in three acts by Helen Jerome, was presented by the junior class on April 1 and 2.

The play concentrates on Mrs. Bennet's determination to get her daughters married. Jane, Elizabeth, and Lydia are likely-looking girls in an unlikely-looking period when a woman's one possible career is matrimony. To be a wife was success. Anything else was failure.

Jane and her Mr. Bingley and Lydia with her Mr. Wickham are quite content with the good of things as they are; not Elizabeth! She actually refuses to marry Mr. Collins whom she openly deplores and Mr. Darcy whom she secretly adores.

The play is the story of the duel between Elizabeth and her pride and Darcy and his prejudice. Each give in before the evening is over, and pride and prejudice meet halfway.

Senior Play Cast. Seated: Gene Runkle, Titus Savage; Linda McPherson, Lily Belle Savage; Chris Trout, Samuel Savage; Carolyn Wagner, Ethel Savage. Standing: Valerie Dixon, Miss Wilhelmina; Philip Hammond, Dr. Emmett; Debbie Tredway, Fairy May; Jim Emery, Jeffrey; David Folcomer, Hannibal; Wilma Skelton, Mrs. Paddy. Absent: Suzanne Manifold, Florence.

The Curious Savage

On November 18 and 19, the senior class presented The Curious Savage, a three act comedy, by John Patrick.

Mrs. Savage portrayed a lonely old woman who thwarted the plans of her greedy step-children, who attempted to lay their hands on her money by having her committed to a home for the mentally disturbed. It was here that she met her strange, yet contented friends: Florence, Hannibal, Fairy May, Jeffrey, and Mrs. Paddy.

A merry chase ensued as the Savages tried to track down the money, only to discover that the teddy bear that held the money was burned.

In the final act, Mrs. Savage recovered her fortune and said goodbye to the gentle inmates of "The Cloisters."

... on the count of three!

The end of the beginning!

A lot of work goes into earning a diploma. Your name on one indicates a measure of achievement of which you can feel proud.

But a diploma is only a milestone—a measurement of what you have done.

Now...how about doing something with it?

For example, what are your plans for furthering your education?

If that isn't possible, then how about looking for a job with a company for whom you can work as beneficially as you worked for your diploma?

Personal effort is the essence of success—the key to your progress. That precious piece of paper you receive graduation day can help you unlock a bright future—as bright as you strive to make it.

May your future be a fine one!
